

David Zukerman

+972 (0) 505878881 | David.Zukerman@cultivaid.org

Education

Hebrew University, Faculty of Agriculture

B.Sc. Plant Science

2014-2017

Description:

- The program provides a wide background in agricultural studies focusing on plant biology as it relates to agriculture

Professional Experience

Marina Mushroom Farm

2018-2019

Role description: Operations manager, in charge of a team of 9 workers. Responsible for the production of compost and marketing to local farmers. Planning and execution of growing protocols and work plans.

CultivAid, Intern

2018

CultivAid is an Israeli-international NGO, specializing in capacity building and knowledge and technology transfer initiatives with a focus on the agricultural and water sectors. CultivAid emphasizes the development of skilled local professionals through hands-on training programs, field work, and joint research in order to build a sustainable knowledge infrastructure.

Role description: Intern in the Tigray project and in the TOV project in butajira. Preparation and execution of training sessions for local farmers and students studying agriculture. Maintenance of demonstration site including hands on farming and supervision of workers – field crops, orchards and seedling nursery

Laboratory worker - Faculty of Agriculture

2016- 2017

Role description: Design and execution of laboratory experiments. Performing statistical analysis and formulating conclusions

IDF - Mandatory Army Service

2019-2012

Soldier in the Engineering Corp. and operational commander with the border police protecting the Jerusalem area

Languages

Hebrew (mother tongue), Russian (mother tongue), English (fluent), Amharic (basic)